Smith Installed As Top Officer of Anytown DeMolay In Impressive Public Ceremony at Anytown Masonic Building

Terry J. Smith was installed as the presiding officer of Anytown DeMolay Friday night in impressive ceremonies at the Anytown Masonic Building.

Smith, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Smith, 116 Faraway Drive, Anytown, assumed the office of Master Councilor of the youth organization, which serves young men from eighth grade through age 21.

He is an honor student at Anytown High School, where he also is a member of the football and baseball teams, and the debating society.

Joining Smith in the leadership team of Anytown DeMolay are Fred Jones, Senior Councilor, and Harry Brown, Junior Councilor. Other officers installed and their offices were: (LIST THEM HERE)

DeMolay is a fraternal organization for young men who have finished seventh grade and who have not yet reached age 21. It emphasizes the virtues of reverence, love of parents, courtesy, comradeship, fidelity, cleanness, and patriotism, and provides its members with opportunities for civic and charitable service. Anyone interested in learning more about DeMolay can contact Fred DeMolay at 123-4567.
